

Ministry Development Process:

Idea presented to point of contact who then gives them a "Ministry Development Sheet" (MDS) to fill out.

Point of contact person then directs them to the most appropriate Servant Team Leader to continue the process.

Interview is set up with the servant team leader to discuss completed MDS and any additional follow-up necessary.

Servant team meets and discusses the ministry idea to see if it's a good fit at the current time.

A decision is reached or further direction given.

Developing New Ministries

Instructions: Please prayerfully consider and answer each question and return to the leader of the ministry area most appropriate for the ministry area you are planning. You will most likely need additional paper to answer these questions just use this as a starting point...

Do you feel this ministry would qualify as a ministry of Real Life? Why Or Why not:

What is the purpose of this ministry (in one sentence)? How do you propose to fulfill this purpose?

Who do you want to reach with this ministry?

What need (s) will this ministry meet?

What is the desired outcome of this ministry (Vision):

What are your goals for this ministry?

How do you plan to accomplish this vision and goals?

How has God been leading you to establish this ministry? What gifts and experience do you have that will help you minister in this area?

In what ways can other ministries at Real Life help you in this area of ministry?

Are you willing to work with the leadership at Real Life so that there will continue to be stability, consistency, and structure in all the ministries of Real Life?
